

Village Computer Club 2003-4 Programme

When	What	Who
10 June	Informal
24 June	Streaming radio and video over the internet	Ian Greenslade
8 July	Informal
22 July	Processing and improving scanned and imported images	Marion Bruce
12 August	Informal
26 August	Photoshop questions answered.	Trevor Burley
9 September	Informal
23 September	Selecting a computer. Laptops or conventional? Media server, office workhorse or games machine?	Jim Noble
14 October	Informal
28 October	Internet hygiene – avoiding spam, malware and unsolicited intrusions.	Jim Noble
11 November	Informal
25 November	Burning CDs – A discussion about making CD-R, CD-RW, DVD data, music and video compilations	Jim Noble
9 December	Christmas Dinner
13 January 2004	Informal
27 January	Technology futures. Did last year's predictions come true and what's coming next?	Ian Greenslade
10 February	Informal
24 February	Evening off because hall unavailable
9 March	Informal
23 March	Networking – how it can be useful in the home and the advantages of wireless networking.	Jim Noble
13 April	Informal
27 April	Extracting music from LP records, cleaning it up and recording it to CD.	Arthur Foster
11 May	Informal
25 May	AGM

During informal meetings, two club PCs are set up to enable individual tuition and experiment. Expertise is usually on hand to fix problems with member's PCs.

At the end of all meetings, we gather round to make general comments and hopefully have our questions answered.